Operation of Indian Banks abroad

768. SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: WiJj the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that inadequate capital and inability to innovate new attractive schemes are the major problems of the Indian Banks abroad which make them unable to penetrate into the lucrative local markets in various countries; and

(b) if so, what is the new Banking policy to be adopted by Government to have more business-oriented banking system in foreign countries?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC AFFAIRS IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI EDUARDO FA-LEIRO): (a) and (b) Presently 9 Indian Banks have 119 operating branches in 25 foreign countries. While some branches are located in important international monetary centres others are located at places where they are mainly involved in retail banking

The Indian banks' branches have been gradually increasing their participation in various types of business abroad. The banks have also been provided such support as is feasible to diversify and broaden their activities.
